
Contents

Statement	1
-----------	---

Statement

- If an operation can be done in m ways and another operation be done in n ways then:

- Both the operations can be done in:

$$N = m \times n$$

- Either of the operations, either m or n can be done in:

$$N = m + n$$